

Jayhawks Breaking Barriers Resiliency Workshop Panelists

Monday, March 27th, 6 p.m., The Commons in Spooner Hall

Joy Wheeler, CEO of Girl Scouts of N.E. Kansas and N.W. Missouri since 2013. Joy is an accomplished executive with more than 35 years of experience in healthcare and community leadership, including foundation of a community healthcare company which sold for more than $100 million, after an initial investment of $5 million. She has a master's degree in public administration from the University of Missouri-Kansas City and a B.S. degree in nursing from the University of Kansas.

Angie Grant, Vice President and the Director of Engineering Standards at Henderson Engineers, Inc. Angie began her career at Henderson Engineers in 2004 as a fire protection designer after obtaining her B.S. degree in Architectural Engineering from the University of Kansas. She is also the Director of the Empow[HER] women's network at Henderson, which was established in 2014 to propel professional women through connections, collaborations, and continuous development.

Carl W. Lejuez, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences at KU. Before joining KU in 2016, Dr. Lejuez was professor of psychology and associate dean of research for the College of Behavioral and Social Sciences at the University of Maryland. He earned his master's degree and doctorate in clinical psychology from West Virginia University and completed his clinical internship at the Brown University Clinical Training Consortium.

Wayne Carter, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Kansas City Area Life Sciences Institute (KCALS). Before joining KCALS, Wayne was the Vice President of Global Research at Hill's Pet Nutrition in Topeka, Kansas and prior to that position, was Executive Director of Global Clinical Technology for Pfizer Human Health in Groton, CT for 11 years. He obtained his B.S. degree, D.V.M., and Ph.D. from Purdue University.